

BUSINESS MODEL CANVAS

Working model - assumptions to validate through pilots and customer evidence

Key Partners Supply: Verified STEM tutors and specialist educators Infrastructure: Supabase, Stripe, Resend, video classroom and AI providers Channels: Schools, universities, regional programmes and parent communities Trust: Credential verification and safeguarding partners	Key Activities Acquire: Assess learners, recruit tutors and build partner referrals Deliver: Match, book, teach, record, assign and review Assure: Tutor verification, safeguarding, payments and dispute operations Improve: Use learning records to strengthen personalisation and tutor quality	Value Propositions Students: Clear explanations, guided practice and confidence that compounds Parents: Trusted tutors, organised support and visibility into the next step Tutors: Qualified demand plus tools for consistent, accountable teaching Partners: A measurable human-first STEM support pathway	Customer Relationships Entry: Free learning assessment and open Practice Dojo Core: Ongoing one-to-one tutor relationship Continuity: Class space, messaging, homework, Missions and progress updates Retention: Recurring lessons, parent reassurance and demonstrated momentum	Customer Segments Primary buyer: Parents of secondary-school students needing STEM support Primary user: GCSE, IGCSE and A-Level learners Supply user: Independent and university-linked STEM tutors Future buyer: Schools, universities and regional education programmes
Key Resources People: Tutor network, educational operations and safeguarding capability Product: Multi-role platform, class spaces, booking, payments and learning tools Data: Consent-based lesson, practice, homework and progress records Brand: Human-first trust and structured science-confidence positioning	Channels Direct: SEO learning content, tutor pages, assessment funnel and referrals Product-led: Practice Dojo and FocusDojo Partner-led: University, school and regional programme pilots Community: Exam-support community and tutor advocacy	Cost Structure Variable: Tutor payouts, payment fees, AI usage, email and video services Operating: Verification, safeguarding, support and dispute handling Growth: Tutor recruitment, assessments, partnerships and content Product: Engineering, hosting, security and compliance	Revenue Streams Tutoring: Platform commission on completed bookings; current default is 25% Subscription: FocusDojo Pro: €4.99 monthly or €39 yearly Potential: School or programme licences, cohort support and premium pathways Principle: Keep tutoring as the core; add software revenue without weakening trust	Critical Metrics Funnel: Assessment-to-first-paid-lesson conversion Retention: Repeat-booking rate and active learner months Learning: Homework/Mission completion and confidence improvement Supply: Tutor activation, utilisation, quality and retention